Subject: Informational sessions on TIAA plan changes start April 8

Learn about the enhancements to the Iowa State retirement plans at TIAA.

To help you prepare for the enhancements to the Iowa State retirement plans at TIAA that begin on April 15, 2025, you will have several opportunities to learn more and get your questions answered.

We invite you to attend an online or on-site seminar, visit an information desk, or schedule a one-on-one meeting that will provide:

- Details on the updates that may help you plan and save for your financial future
- Instructions and tips for accessing and managing your account
- An opportunity to get answers to your questions* from a TIAA financial consultant

One-on-one counseling session: A more in-depth review of your account

As a participant in the Iowa State University retirement plans, you have access to personalized advice on the plans' investment options from a TIAA financial consultant. This service is available as part of your retirement program at no additional cost to you.

During the plan changes, additional onsite meetings will be available during the weeks of April 14 and April 21 at several campus locations, including Beardshear Hall, the College of Veterinary Medicine, the Memorial Union, Parks Library, and the General Services Building.

Schedule an in-person or virtual session by visiting tiaa.org/schedulenow or by calling 800-732-8353 weekdays from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. CT.

We're here to help

You can access an electronic copy of the information and details of the enhancements already sent to TIAA participants by visiting tiaa.org/iastate or by calling TIAA at 800-842-2252 weekdays from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. CT.

*We ask that participants keep their questions general and not personal in webinar and seminar settings. Personal finance questions should be addressed in one-on-one counseling sessions to keep things moving and to protect individual participant information.
